Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA):

- The Salary Commission used the Consumer Price Index - All Urban Consumers - West Urban to establish the actual and projected rate of inflation. This is the same index used by previous Salary Commissions. See Attachment A.

- For 2018, the Commission establishes a 1.9% percent COLA for all positions. This is based upon the average of the last 10 years, 2007 through 2016.

- For 2019, the Commission establishes a 2.0% COLA. This is based upon the rounded 1.9% COLA from Attachment A, rounded to 2.0% to reflect inflation may increase slightly in future years.
Assessor, Auditor, Treasurer: The Commission researched the compensation for these positions at other Washington State counties, using the following for benchmarks:

- Assessed Value
- Population
- Number of Employees
- Budget

In each benchmark category, the Counties that were four larger and four smaller than Whatcom County were used for comparison. In all cases, Whatcom County positions are currently above market comparables. See Attachment B.

Based on those comparisons, the Commission concludes the compensation for these positions shall increase per the COLAs established by the Commission.

Sheriff: The Commission researched the compensation for this position at other Washington State counties, using the following for benchmarks:

- Assessed Value
- Population
- Number of Employees
- Budget

In each benchmark category, the Counties that were four larger and four smaller than Whatcom County were used for comparison. See Attachment B. In addition, because the City of Bellingham is a large population center within Whatcom County, the Bellingham Police Chief compensation and duties were also considered.

Because duties for sheriffs vary somewhat by county, the specific scope of duties for the Whatcom County Sheriff was then weighed. Considering the Whatcom County Sheriff’s scope of duties, the diverse population served, and the large territory overseen, the Commission concludes salary adjustments in 2018 and 2019 are warranted, in addition to the COLAs established by the Commission. As reflected in the table, these adjustments increase the Sheriff’s salary to $142,000 by 2019.

Prosecuting Attorney: Prior county Salary Commissions matched the Prosecuting Attorney’s compensation to Superior Court Judge compensation. For 2018 the State is increasing Superior Court Judge compensation by 4%, which the Commission feels exceeds what is warranted in Whatcom County. Therefore, for 2018 and 2019, the Commission concludes the Prosecuting Attorney compensation shall increase per the COLAs established by the Commission.

County Executive: Whatcom County’s government structure (County Executive and seven County Council members) is somewhat unique. Therefore, the County Executive position was compared to other governmental executives within Whatcom County. Additionally, three other Washington counties with similar Executive/Council forms of government were considered to see how they compensate their County Executive relative to their Prosecuting Attorney.
Considering the scope of management responsibility of the County Executive, the Commission determines it important to adjust the Executive's compensation to re-establish its historical placement. Prior to the Prosecuting Attorney's compensation being tied to Superior Court Judge compensation, the Executive compensation was equal to or above the Prosecuting Attorney's compensation. Therefore, the Commission concludes the Executive compensation shall match the Prosecuting Attorney's compensation for 2018, and then adjust per the COLA established by the Commission for 2019.

County Council: Whatcom County's government structure (County Executive and seven County Council members) is somewhat unique. The County Council is the legislative body for Whatcom County. The Council members have broad powers requiring knowledge and research about many facets of County government in order to make impactful decisions affecting all citizens of Whatcom County.

Prior Salary Commissions adjusted compensation for the County Council over the last few years to appropriately reflect the demands of the position. Therefore, the Commission concludes no further adjustment to these positions is currently needed, and that the compensation for these positions shall increase per the COLAs established by the Commission.
