ORDINANCE NO. 93-068

AN EMERGENCY ORDINANCE TO AMEND ORDINANCE 92-073,
REGARDING THE UNIFORM FIRE CODE, TO ERASE THE SUNSET CLAUSE

WHEREAS, the Fire Code expires at midnight, October 12, 1993; and

WHEREAS, the County is required to have the Uniform Fire Code in force; and

WHEREAS, the County Council and the County Executive believe passage of this emergency ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety or support of the county government and its institutions;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Whatcom County Council that Ordinance 92-073 be amended as follows: ... 15.16.010. The Uniform Fire Code permanent rules 91-16-115, with appendices thereto and latest supplements, 1991 Edition, published by the International Fire Code Institute, is hereby adopted by reference including each and all the rules and regulations printed therein, except as herein modified, and shall be in full force and effect in Whatcom County as an interim ordinance. ~~The ordinance, together with rules as agreed to between the Fire Chiefs Association and the Whatcom County Fire Marshall, shall be submitted to the Whatcom County Council for final adoption by October 12, 1993. ...~~

BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED that passage of this emergency ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety or support of the county government and its existing institutions; and

BE IT FINALLY ORDAINED that this emergency ordinance shall take effect immediately when adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Council and upon approval by the County Executive, pursuant to Whatcom County Home Rule Charter Section 2.40.

ADOPTED this 12th day of October, 1993.
