

EXHIBIT A

Docket Items 2006 Comprehensive Plan
Rural/Resource Lands

| Docket # | Title                    | Action(s)                                                                                                          | Purpose                                                           |
|-----------------|---------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2006-L          | Rural to Agricultural Rezone I  | Consider changes to Rural and Ag zones                                                                                    | Provide greater protection of Rural and Ag lands                         |
| 2006-M          | Rural to Agricultural Rezone II | Consider Rural land for Ag designation                                                                                    | Expand designated Ag acreage                                             |
| 2006-O & 2006-P | APO Soils I & II                | Add Whatcom-Labounty soil to APO Soil List                                                                                | Increase USDA "Prime" soils acreage under APO protection                 |
| 2006-Q          | Cluster Requirements            | Require clustering for subdivisions in Rural, Ag and Rural Forestry & require permanent deed restriction on reserve tract | Retain open space and resource uses of subdivided land in affected zones |