Virtual Meeting Guidelines

Introductions

Board Members: If available, we ask that board members turn on their cameras during the meeting. The board roster will be read, and each DDAB member is asked to unmute and verify that they are present.

Community Members: Based on the number of participants and time available, staff may invite community members present at the meeting to unmute and introduce themselves, or to type their name and the organization they represent (if any) into the chat box.

Public Comment

If you wish to make a public comment please:

1. Use the Zoom “raise hand” function, or physically raise your hand if your video camera on your device is on.
2. Type your question or comment into the Zoom chat box.
3. If calling in by phone, unmute when invited to do so during the Public Comment section of the agenda.
